1. On 23 March 1954, 13 to 16 trucks, occupied by troops with baggage [redacted] left Busch Kaserne (1542), Leisnig, toward Fischendorf. On 27 March, several trucks occupied by about 20 troops and towing AT guns and AA guns, 3 trucks with ammunition, 4 trucks with field kitchens and 6 BA-64 armored scout cars [redacted]
[redacted]

2. The Busch Kaserne and the Friedrich August Kaserne (1541) were occupied about 33 percent and 66 percent on 24 and 31 March, respectively. Tanks and SP guns had not yet returned to Busch Kaserne.

3. On 23 March, a shipment of 24 trucks, 3 field kitchens, bridge-building equipment and other engineer equipment passed through the Leisnig railroad station, coming from the direction of Grimma and proceeding toward Doabeln.

[redacted] Comment. The units which left Leisnig on 23 March and returned on 27 March participated in an exercise of the 8th Gds Mecz Div, which was held in the Zeithain training area between 24 and 27 March. The engineer shipment probably belonged to the 133d Gds Engr Bn of the 8th Gds Mecz Div from Grimma which also participated in the abovementioned exercise and was observed in Zeithain on 25 March.
